

KWL

Before you can write anything, you need to have something to say. Let's start by listing some things you already know about pirates and some things you want to find out. Then do some preliminary research and list the things you learn.

Things we know about pirates:

Things we want to know about pirates:

Things we learned about pirates:

